THE RALEIGH NEWS

VOL. XIV--NO. 15. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 18, 1878. $5.00 PER ANNUM

The Washington Capital says: "A hypocritical, clerical-looking shyster, who has tried the role of a pettifogging lawyer in Illinois, North Carolina and other States, about a year ago put up his shingle in this city, and at once resumed his old avocation of traducing reputable ladies and blackmailing timid men. To aid him in his nefarious work he employs the services of the most depraved of the colored population, and has been endeavoring to extract money from several highly respectable citizens. Not long since he induced an ignorant negro to pawn his wife's effects to raise a $10 fee to pay him for instituting a blackmailing suit against a well-known Washingtonian. The negro waited several weeks for the expected ducats to roll into his pocket, and when he found that the shyster had failed to bring the suit he mourned, and refused to be comforted, at the loss of the $10, and now threatens to have the said shyster arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Washington may be good feeding ground for the ordinary bummer, but the blackmailer will find this Jordan a particularly hard road to travel."

Quere: Does the italicized word give a clew to the name?

In May, 1874, Bishop Atkinson, in his annual address before the convention of the Protestant Episcopal church, first called attention to the necessity of a Diocesan School for boys. Hickory, Statesville, Charlotte and Morganton, through their respective Rectors, put in applications for the location. Morganton offered the Vine Hill property, consisting of 200 acres of land, with one of the finest building sites on the W. N. C. R. R., commanding as it does the new Asylum for the Insane, the town, a fine sheet of water and a most extensive and varied mountain view. At the meeting of the General Assembly, in the winter of '74-'75, a charter granting full collegiate powers was obtained and trustees named. On the 7th instant, the corner stone of the building was laid by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson, assisted by Rev. Neilson Falls, in the presence of the Governor and Lieut. Governor of the State, the Trustees of the School, and a large and intelligent assemblage of the ladies and gentlemen of Morganton and vicinity.

Some years since, a young man who had worked his way up from a subordinate position to one of some honor in the Patent Office at Washington committed suicide. He was, it seems, the chief support of his aged and infirm parents, with whom he resided; his cares were heavy, his means were small, the battle of life proved too strong for him, his mind became affected and a bloody razor in the hands of a ghastly corpse was the result. Kind, polite and apparently cheerful, his terrible death was a shock to the entire office. Since his death his mother, crazed by grief, visits the Department at irregular intervals inquiring for her son and desiring to see him. Newly appointed employees search in vain for his name on the list. Years have passed, but still she comes, eluding the watchfulness of her friends, seeking him whom on earth she never more will see again, and when kindly told of his absence from the building promising with a patient smile to come again on the morrow.

Says the Washington Capital: "The fall of Hale in Maine was accompanied by cool weather, as marked by the Radical barometer. Only a few months ago Mr. Hale was thought an important enough person to assume the leadership of the Republican side of the House of Representatives and the chairmanship of the National Republican Committee. He added to his duties the championship of Robeson and the naval crookedness.

Hale deserves well, and should be honored in his fall. His successor is a splendid stone cutter, and ought certainly to give him a nice tombstone.

Proposals and designs for monument and epitaph will be received."

Some of the Radical papers that fought the silver bill to the bitter end, and have applied every possible term of reproach to the standard dollar, doing all in their power to bring it into general contempt, glorified John Sherman when he proposed to "resume" last Monday. His "resumption" was an exchange of the silver dollar for greenbacks. What must these organs think of the greenback if, in their estimation, it is a privilege to exchange it for such a dollar as they have represented the new coin to be?

"Sing a song of sixpence,
Old Chandler got full of Rye
When he found his son-in-law wasn't in the Congressional pie:
When the pie is opened Eugene won't be there to sing:
Isn't that a pretty dish to set before the Republican King?
Grant is in Europe, gathering third-term honey,
While Sherman is here manipulating the money;
Blaine is roaming 'round, hanging up dirty clothes;
By and bye a Democratic black bird will nip off his nose."

A correspondent writes to enquire "who is President of the North Carolina Division of the Army of Northern Virginia Association?" Will some one, who knows, give us the desired information?

The Newberne Nutshell truly says' "We venture to say that there is no place in the United States, according to population, that has done as much for the yellow fever sufferers as Raleigh.

BUTLER'S CONVENTION.

The Choice of a Mob---His Hopes Will be Dashed--His Opponents Rally Solidly--Sights and Scenes in Worcester.

By Telegraph to the News.

WORCESTER, MASS., Sept. 17—There was a very large gathering of delegates at the Democratic Convention. Butler's friends were present in large numbers at the meeting. They met with most determined opposition and show signs of weakening. If the Butler ranks are broken, Chas. Theodore Russell will be nominated by the State Central Committee deciding the contested cases against Butler men.

At 8 o'clock the Butler men having possession of the hall, placed L Powers, of Springfield, in the chair and proceeded to business. After a long wrangle Mayor Platt took the platform and said all persons in the hall might remain, but no others would be admitted. A resolution thanking the Mayor for his decided stand was unanimously passed, amid great applause. At 11:10 David Powers took the floor and requested the delegates to nominate a chairman. Mr. McDevitt, Butler's Secretary, moved that a committee be appointed to see that only delegates bearing credentials be admitted into the hall. The motion was carried. The committee elected retired. Before it returned a rush made for the hall by an outsider forced the doors. He was closely followed by a mob, but the doors were closed by the police. At this juncture Major McCafferty entered the hall and was received with cheers.

Hon. Edward C. Avery then stepped upon the platform and said: "By request of the Democratic State Committee, I am here to announce." A delegate here moved that he be requested to leave the platform. The Chairman decided that Avery must leave the platform, which he refused to do. Maj. McCafferty said Avery was ambitious for the honors of a martyr, he wanted to go out to the "blue bloods" and inform them that he had served them. He wanted to go out and inform the man who called the members of the convention communists, that he had performed that duty. "I am authorized," said Mr. Avery, again commencing to speak, (but calls and hisses again interrupted the speaker, who was obliged to cease speaking.) McCafferty again tried to speak, urging the Convention to hear what Avery had to say. The excitement beggared description—the delegates brandishing canes, hats, &c. Finally Avery got on the platform and declared the Convention adjourned, until Wednesday, September 25th. He then left the hall. Further proceedings resulted in the election of Major McCafferty, of Worcester, as temporary chairman, followed by making Richard S Spofford, of Newburyport, permanent president.

On taking the chair Spofford made a speech referring to the wants of the laboring classes, and denouncing bondholders. During the proceedings previous to the election of a permanent chairman, Dr. Kritz, of Boston, declared the action of the Democratic Committee an usurpation of extraordinary authority, and deserving of the censure of the Democratic party of Massachusetts.

Jno. L. Rice, of Springfield, said he proposed to nominate a man who believed in the good old Democratic principle and would right the old commonwealth. Therefore he nominated for Governor Gen. Benjamin F. Butler. Then followed great excitement, the delegates all rising and cheering. Mr. Cook, of Boston, seconded the nomination. The Chairman stated the motion, when Jno. C. Galvan, of Stoughton, took the floor and protested against the name of Benj. F. Butler, and asked how in the name of God a Democrat could consistently nominate Gen. Butler as the Democratic nominee for Governor. For fifteen years Butler has opposed every Democratic principle. By his own declarations he is not a Democrat, and you cannot consistently nominate him. The speech was received with hisses and cries to put the speaker out. At the conclusion of the speech three groans for the speaker and three cheers for Butler were given. When the State Central Committee fully realized that the Butler faction had control of Mechanics Hall, they appointed a committee to see what could be done towards procuring a hall. The Mayor said that Mechanics Hall was held by the mob, who had forced an entrance, and he did not think those who were in possession could be gotten out without bloodshed. The committee then decided to adjourn the convention until Wednesday of next week, at Faunil Hall, as all the halls in Worcestor have been rented by the Butler party. The committee further believe that they can say to the people of the State that the convention which nominated Butler was a mere mob.

No violence has occurred, but it is only prevented by the moderate counsels of leading men, for persons abound who would at slightest word attempt to take possession of the Hall and drive out the Butler mob.

Hon. N. F. Baird addressed a large crowd, telling them that the Butler faction would rue the day they seized the hall. The announcement was received with deafening cheers.

Dennis Kearney, the communist, has arrived, and will speak to-night. A large force of police will be in attendance.

MACALLISTER'S WONDERFUL BOX.

A Mysterious Nightly Event On Broadway.

New York Times.

The most wonderful feat performed by Macallister at the Globe Theatre is the Pandora Mystery, of which he claims the origination, and which, on ordinary principles of analysis, is really a baffling experiment in legerdemain. A box constructed of common flooring is placed upon a couple of carpenter's dogs. The box is about four feet high by three feet in length and two and a half in breadth. The strips of flooring are securely nailed to upright standards, one in each corner. The angles are also securely strapped at intervals with iron straps screwed firmly to the timber, both at the sides and at the bottom. The lid is constructed of the same material as the box, has a pair of heavy strap hinges and is fastened by a hasp and staple, the latter receiving a powerful padlock. Two carpenters were last night called upon the stage, as a special committe, to examine the receptacle, and report whether there was any false bottom or any mode of opening it except by unlocking it and lifting the lid. After a full inspection, during which the box was turned over, sounded, pulled about and tested in in every possible manner known to the trade, the committee pronounced it a strongly made packing-box of the ordinary pattern. One of them, at request of Macallister, then closed the box, affixed the padlock, turned the key, and put the latter in his pocket. As a further precaution he tied up the padlock in such a manner that it was impossible to get at the keyhole. The piano played slowly, and a screen moved between the audience and the box, but not so as to conceal it entirely from view, or to admit of a substitution. The magician passed behind the screen as noiselessy as a cat. In less than 30 seconds the screen was withdrawn, and the committee was requested to examine the box. Meanwhile the magician had mysteriously vanished. They reported that the lock had not been tampered with, unlocked it, and lifted the lid, when up leaped the mysterious magican, like Jack in the famous toy, or the goblin in the Arabian legend. The question was how he got in there. The next procedure was to lock the magician in the box, with the same careful aud exact attention to detail that has been previously observed. Music trickled from the keys of an unseen piano, and the green screen almost as thin as gauze, slid slowly into place, and remained for about 20 seconds Not the slightest sound was heard behind the screen; the dropping of a pin would have disturbed the silence of that breathless 20 seconds. The screen was withdrawn, and revealed the magician sitting upon the lid of the box. The lock had not been tampered with or disturbed, nor had the assistant been out of view of the audience for a sinlge instant. The trick was the cause of a great deal of speculation among the amateurs who were present.

He Was Tempted.

A member of the colored church was the other evening conversing earnestly with an acquaintance, and seeking to have him change into better paths, but the friend said he was too often tempted to permit him to become a christian.

"Whar's yer backbone dat ye can't rose up and stand temptation!" exclaimed the good man. "I was dat way myself once. Right in dis yere town I had a chance to steal a pa'r of boots—mighty fine ones, too. Nobody was dar to see me, and I reached out my hand and de debbil said take 'em. Den a good spirit whispered for me to let 'em boots alone."

"An' you didn't take 'em?"

"No, sah—not much. I took a pa'r o' cheap shoes off de shelf, an' I left dem boots alone!"

MARRIED AND MURDERED.

McDowell Court---Hope C. Secrest, for the Murder of his Wife and Step-Daughter---Judge Gudger---Hon. R. B. Vance on his Campaign.

Special Correspondence of the News.

MARION, Sept. 16.

McDowell court is in session, His Honor Judge Gudger, presiding. This being the third court which the new Judge has held, public opinion respecting his merits as an officer judicial, and administrater of the law, is made up, and the verdict is in favor of his ability and strict impartiality on the bench. He will prove an ornament to the new judiciary of North Carolina. His charges to the grand jury leave the impress of familiarity with the law and a conscious integrity in its administration as the safe-guard to society and the preservation of the public morals of the country.

AN IMPORTANT MURDER TRIAL.

A most important capital case is set for to-morrow. In March, 1877, Hope C. Secrest, of Union county, left home in his buggy, accompanied by Mrs Maggie Stinson and five year old daughter by a former husband. Secrest had long been intimate with the woman and his attentions were about to bear fruit. They had for months been engaged to marry. They were seen journeying together, and finally they reached Newton, in Catawba county, where the man and woman were married by a minister of the Gospel. Thence they disappeared, the man shortly reappearing in Union county, alone, claiming authority over the property of the absent woman but denying the fact of the marriage as published at the time in the Hickory Press.

FINDING TWO BODIES.

In February last a gentleman living in Burke, on the county line, at a point where the rail and county roads run near together was attracted by some bones which his dog had scratched up in the little skirt of woods, and on examination found the remains of a woman and child. The clothing of each was subsequently identified as that of the missing Mrs. Stinson and child. The wheel tracks of the buggy where it had been driven over sapplings into the woods were not yet effaced, and public opinion settled down to the conviction that Secrest had married and then murdered the woman and also her child. He was arrested and has since been in jail. Last week he was arraigned at Morganton, but moved his trial to this county. There are a host of witnesses from Union, and the accused has able counsel to defend him, Hon. Burgess S. Gaither, of Burke, Col. Geo. N. Folk, of Caldwell, Capt. John F. Murrill, of Catawba, and Mr. D. A. Covington, of Union. The State is represented by Solicitor Adams and John Gray Bynum, Esq., of Burke. The trial promises to be an interesting one and will be reported specially for the News.

SPEECH OF CONGRESSMAN VANCE.

The event of the first day of court was the speech of Hon. Robert B. Vance, for the fourth time a candidate for Congress. He began by alluding to the practical services which he had rendered the people of his District, saying that while he made no pretensions to the brilliant representative, he had sought to accomplish in an unpretentious way the work of a faithful representative, to his District first, then to his State, and finally to his country of thirty-eight States and ten Territories. How fully and satisfactorily he had succeeded the people must themselves judge, before whom he now came for a third review of his congressional career. He thanked his constituents for the confidence and favor with which they had regarded him, having at each succeeding election returned him with an increased majority, until at the last election his majority had reached over eight thousand, and now he had no opposition in the district. Nevertheless he sought their votes as earnestly as at the first, for by such expression at the ballot box must he feel how far his labors were appreciated, and to what extent his fellow-citizens approved his conduct.

FINANCIAL LEGISLATION OF CONGRESS.

General Vance dealt mainly with the financial legislation of Congress, showing how the government first came to create the immense bonded debt in an honest and proper effort to prosecute the war from the National standpoint, and how, subsequently, the money ring set to work to procure special legislation and to control Congress in their interest, to the oppression and destruction of the people. How, under pretence of strengthening the public credit, bonds which were payable, interest and principal, in greenbacks, were declared solvable only in coin; and then how systematically they had gone to work and legislated out of existence all other coin but gold, and then how they put a premium upon that precious metal through the various devices of contraction; and finally by ordering an early day for resumption of specie payments. The speaker showed himself at home on all these matters, and clearly defined his position as in the front ranks of the Democratic party on the financial legislation of the day in the interest of the people, as well as in fair justice to all parties concerned. He took strong ground for repealing the prohibition tax on State banks, and thus reopening these institutions of the people.

TOBACCO TAX AND REVENUE MATTERS.

He presented the record of himself, colleagues and the Democratic party in favor of reducing the internal revenue tax on tobacco, and modifying the law respecting the jurisdiction of Federal courts in cases of murder and other excesses of licensed crime in which the government officers had been shielded in their rough-shod riding over the people, matters with which the people of Western North Carolina are but too familiar with under the infamous rule of the Dick-Douglas Dynasty. General Vance is a plain, practical man, faithful to his duties, and admirably suited to is constituency.

Floods in the Yadkin--Loss of the Corn Crop.

Correspondence of the News.

REEDY CREEK, DAVIDSON CO., N. C., September 14th.

The Yadkin river is higher to-day than it has been in twenty-six years.

The corn crop on the river is almost an entire loss, which will be very great on account of an unusual amount being planted. This is the third year in succession the farmers have lost a large portion of their corn crop on the river. Some of them are very much discouraged.

I have heard of no danger to property as yet, though I think there has been some up the river. No damage to stock or cattle that I have heard of. The loss of the corn is enough; leaving some people almost without a bushel, and no money to buy with.

Land Slides on W. N. C. R. R. --A Collision.

Correspondence of the News.

OLD FORT, Sept. 15.

A land-slide between Morganton and Bridgewater, Thursday morning cut off mail communication from below, all cars being caught east. The slide was two hundred feet long and covered the track ten feet deep. It is now open, and this week trains will run through from Salisbury over the breaks and slides.

A collision, without damage, occurred near Catawba Station Friday night. President Wilson and lady were on one of the engines.

If you desire cheeks with roses of health upon them; if you want that peculiar brilliancy of complexion so prized by ladies and admired by everybody; if, in a word, you want that perfection of physical appearance that pure blood insures, use Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture.

His weight was found to be 163½ pounds, or 32 pounds more than when he left the Dark Continent. The three years of exposure and suffering he has experienced are manifest in his appearance. He is very gray, and has a wan and almost haggard look, but is now rapidly recovering his usual health and vigor. *

Fall Stock of Groceries.

Latta & Myatt have undoubtedly the largest stock of groceries in the market. They have just received another 100 of those fine Mullets, and they are selling at bottom prices. They are also in receipt of a large lot of No. 1 Mackerel. Patapsco Flour, N. C. Flour, and a very large stock of Bagging and Ties. Call early and be supplied at the lowest market prices.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton in Raleigh are rapidly increasing, and their growth is due to the energy and judgment exercised by commission merchants. Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co. have been in the commission business, and are known as prompt and reliable commission merchants, who do only a commission business. Their charges are as low as any. *

It Might Have Been.

When taking a retrospection of our past lives, how often does conscience whisper to broken spirits and wounded hearts the sad, sad words, "It might have been?" Thus it may be with the sufferer who endures the agonies of hemorrhoids, or piles, and heeds not the counsel to try Barham's Infallible Pile Cure, which is warranted to speedily and permanently cure this distressing disease. Manufactured by the Barham Pile Cure Co., Durham, N. C. 1w

Cotton!

Having devoted special attention to the sale of cotton for the past 10 years, we are prepared to sell for parties to advantage, and will make liberal cash advances to those wishing to store. We are also prepared to furnish cotton growers and ginners with Bagging, Ties and Twine, at bottom prices. Correspondence solicited by M. T. Norris & Co., Cotton and Commission merchants, Raleigh, N. C. *

Wm. Woollcott has just opened a complete stock of ladies, gents, and childrens boots and shoes and rubbers, and his prices are as low as the lowest. It will pay you to examine his stock before purchasing. *

The Standard of Excellence.

Bread is the staff of life, and is used in every household. Yet how few have the judgment to make such a selection of flour as will make bread white, pure, tempting. Cheapness in this staple food is nearly always coupled with impurity, and brands without name or reputation are passed off upon the unsuspecting as of superior quality. The idea in purchasing this article is to get it at a place where its quality is guaranteed. This is done, and it may be had in any quantity at the store of W. H. Dodd, corner Wilmington and Martin streets. *

A Family Convenience.

People naturally desire to find a store at which they can purchase their supplies, particularly of provisions, of the best quality and at lowest rates. When once they have found such a place they may feel satisfied. All such provident and prudent housekeepers are informed that at the family grocery of J. P. Pritchard, corner of Hillsboro Avenue and Salisbury street, they can find the choicest goods at bottom prices. *

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you,—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a sample bottle for ten cents. Three doses will relieve you. aug14dawlyeow

Tombstones at Cost.

Parties wishing tombstones of any description will find it their interest to to call and examine Mr. John Cayton's large and varied selection. He will sell at cost for the next thirty days. Now is the time to secure bargains. Marble yard just below Harps carriage factory *

To Carpenters and Builders.

If you are needing anything in the way of edge tools or builders hardware, of any kind, we would advise you to call at J. C. Brewster's hardware house, where you can find a splendid stock of goods in this line, and at prices to suit the scarcity of money. All tools sold are fully warranted. He will contract for roofing at prices which will enable you to put in your bids (where there is any tin work to be done) lower than ever, giving you an opportunity to use tin in place of shingles.

He uses nothing except the best material. J. C. BREWSTER,
* Holleman Building.

Choice Fruit.

New York Pippins, of the largest size and finest flavor, also Deep Red apples, very choice; both varieties by far the finest apples shown here this season, are for sale by P. R. Uzzle, at his first-class grocery, opposite the market. *

"El Designo,"

A long filler Havana cigar for 5 cents, at Simpson's Drug Store. *

Sale and Board Stable.

Having this day sold our Livery and Omnibus line to O'Kelley & Baker, we will give our personal attention to the sale of horses and mules, and will keep a first class boarding stable. Our stables will be open day and night, and especial attention given to transcient and monthly boarders!

Thankful for the patronage so liberally bestowed heretofore, we trust by strict attention, to merit a continuance of the same in our sale and boarding stables.

The Lessons of Experience.

It is a wise and salutary provision of nature that, with the lapse of years and amid the engrossing engagements of the time being, we are enabled to forget past troubles, individual, political or national. That is an unfortunate frame of mind which broods over former calamities and dwells too much on unpleasant recollections. And yet it is frequently profitable to revive the memories of past occurrences, however grievous, that they may serve as warnings for the future and enable us to avoid the evils to which we have been once subjected. It is especially important to recur to such events when the causes from which they sprung or the men to whom they are attributable are ready and ripe for their repetition, in kind and spirit, if not in actuality.

It seems like a myth, or rather like a hideous dream, when we look back upon the history of the Radical party in North Carolina, since the inauguration of the era of so-called reconstruction, and when, gathering up the scattered threads of memory, we recall the crimes of which it has been guilty and the atrocities which it has perpetrated.

As we roll up the curtain and look behind the scenes of retrospect, we see a military satrapy lording it over this people, with epauletted minions of the sword and bayonet in our Capitol and scattered through our borders, controlling the smallest privileges of the citizen, displacing Governors, ejecting Legislators, overthrowing municipalities, unlocking treasury vaults, ordering elections, dictating Constitutions, invading Courts, obliterating records, and substituting martial tribunals for the processes of civil law. We shudder to think that these things could have been, and yet the spirit which prompted and the party which did these things are the same spirit and party that are now clamoring for Grant and a "strong government" in 1880.

We look further and see a Convention assembled in this city, in 1868, which, summoned to convene by a military order issued from the city of Charleston, in another State, where the ballots for delegates had been counted and manipulated, was composed, in great part, of a horde of vagrants and adventurers who hadn't a single interest in common with North-Carolinians; nearly all of which class of mendicants and swindlers vanished from our midst, after they had stolen everything tangible, and whose very names are almost forgotten by our people. We see that Convention murder the old Constitution of our fathers, and force upon us a partisan and hybrid charter alien to our feelings and requirements. We remember how, on the night when that Convention adjourned, some of the vagabond portion of it actually formed a ring, and, to the sound of ribald song, danced in demoniac glee over their work. We recall how, when the reconstructed government was inaugurated under that Constitution, the Capital of the Commonwealth was the scene of barbaric orgies, while some of the newly-elected Judges of the State indulged in intemperate and vindictive harangues. We recollect how subsequent Legislatures, with that Constitution as their guide, sought to pile the indebtedness of the State mountain-high, in the interest of rings and thieves, and how bribery and corruption ran riot. We cannot forget how an open bar was run in the Capitol by the chief plunderers, and how, amid bacchanalian debauchery, the work of exultant robbery went on. And yet the party which tolerated such men and such doings, within a very few years past presented almost an unbroken column against the disturbance of that Constitution, and some of the men, who were participants in these doings, or connived at them, are to-day candidates for high offices in North Carolina.

We look yet again, and we see the Governor elected by that party, and a subservient Legislature, suspending the writ of Habeas Corpus, declaring counties in insurrection, imprisoning freemen, terrorizing communities, and sending imported cut-throats, with lawless soldiers, raiding among our citizens; and we see a Radical State Judiciary impotent and unwilling to assert the majesty of violated law. And yet the men who justified and approved these outrages are still shining lights of the party, under whose sanction and authority they were consummated, and are directing its operations and controlling its movements. More lamentable still, we see a few men,—thank God! they are very few,—who were boldest in their denunciation of these crimes, and were victims of their enormity, now seeking the favor and "endorsement" of their perpetrators or condoners!

We need not multiply such recollections. They sweep before the memory, faster far than one can picture them by words, in frightful panorama. It is a grand tribute to the manliness and patriotism of the Democracy of North Carolina, that they rose in the might of indignant manhood and drove from power the authors of such crimes. But the spirit which prompted them still lives,—the party which practiced them is making a desperate effort to regain its possession of the State and National governments,—and the Democrats of North Carolina will be false to prestige, false to duty, false to themselves and country, if they fail, from any cause, to keep the advantage they have won. They can only keep it by compact, determined and earnest union, and he who would break the ranks or play into the hands of the enemy, in view of the interests at stake and the sufferings of the past, will find no room for repentence hereafter, "though he seek it bitterly and with tears."

We aver that we are actuated by no motives or feelings of vindictiveness in this retrospect, but a blast of warning comes to us out of the depths of a hard experience which we would be deaf and insensible, indeed, not to hear, and criminal, indeed, not to heed. We have had much to say, and shall have much to say, of the new and exigent and practical issues of the present hour, but this much we have felt it right to say, to-day, as to the lessons and warnings of the past.

A week or two since, Secretary Sherman issued an order for the redemption of legal tenders in silver, beginning on Monday of last week. He subsequently rescinded the order, and now Washington rumors, as we learn from the Washington correspondence of the New York World, suggest a sinister explanation of both the order and the revocation. It is said that partial resumption was undertaken with a design to influence the Maine election and the Ohio canvass. It was supposed that the mere announcement of resumption in silver three months before the date set by law would rout the Greenbackers; and if the stroke had proven successful it would have been followed up, so runs the report, with the announcement of redemption in gold some time in October. The Republican disaster in Maine, however, showed that there was no charm in the resumption of specie payments three months before January 1, 1879, to soothe the Greenbackers, who simply regarded the action of the Secretary as the precipitation of an evil to avoid evil effect on the canvass; therefore the rescission of the order redeeming legal tenders in silver and the abandonment of all thought of anticipating the date set by law for resumption in gold were determined upon. This explanation clothes the Secretary of the Treasury in all the characteristics of the Mephistophiles that he is.

Scraps of History.

Judge Settle said, in 1876, in an interview with Lewis Jenkins, colored, of Orange, when Jo. Turner was an "independent" candidate for the Senate against Maj. Graham, that "he hadn't spoken to the 'cussed devil' for two years, but, to help the Republican party, he would do most anything and we must help him (Turner) out." Mr. Badger is reported to have said, at the Radical meeting the other night, that "Turner was a crazy fool," but that the object of the Executive Committee in endorsing him was "to disintegrate the damnable Democratic party."

When Jo. Turner, Lewis Jenkins and Wilson Cary held a caucus in a shoe-shop in Milton, in 1876, and Cary told Turner that he regarded him as the Republican candidate, Turner said "it was all right." When the Radical Committee endorsed Turner, last week, the National, Turner's organ, cried "hurrah!" and "old Jo" himself bows gracefully to the endorsement.

Another "Richmond."

Henry N. Brown, Radical, of Hillsboro, in a card in the Hillsboro Recorder, formally announces himself as "the People's candidate for Congress" in this District. He calls the Republican Committee, which endorsed Turner, "the Louis Napoleon Bonaparte Battle Committee," and goes for them and him in curious but pungent vernacular. He proposes to continue a candidate without reference to Committees or Conventions.

State Teachers' Association.

The publication of the proceedings of the State Teachers' Association has been delayed by the press of matter arising from the recent elections. We think, on account of the importance of the subject, our readers will be interested in the proceedings inaugurating the Association, which will be found in another column.

The Troy Times, in condoling with Mr. Blaine, pronounces him a sagacious and prescient statesman, who, like Henry Clay, "would rather be right than be President." Thus do our hopes decay. The Hon. Jim's Presidential aspirations are knocked into a cocked hat, his own friends concede; and under such circumstances it is the height of cruelty to tell him that he is "right." No such plaster can heal the gaping wound.

Massachusetts boiled with righteous indignation when England refused to surrender the forger Winslow, because of an alleged intention to try the reverend rascal for an offense other than that set forth in the claim for extradition. The British claim was untenable, and has been since abandoned. Now Massachusetts stultifies herself by declining to surrender the thief, Kimpton, on the requisition of Gov. Hampton, of South Carolina, and pleads the very same excuse for which England was so fiercely denounced in the Winslow case.

The Shelbyville (Tenn) Commercial nominates A. G. Thurman for President, and Jno. M. Bright, of Tennessee, for Vice-President in 1880. Judge Bright is a true man and an honest politician, and has ably represented the Fifth District of Tennessee for several terms in Congress. He was educated in North Carolina, and those who were present at the Centenial in Charlotte, in May, 1875 will remember his patriotic and instructive address on that occasion.

One J. F. Herron has just been elected Colonel of the Ninth New York Militia; whereupon the N. Y. Star asks, "are competent officers so scarce in New York that we must go a-begging after a carpet-bag Louisiana politician to command one of our finest militia regiments?"

When a man does that which costs him the good opinion of old friends and supporters, his indemnification ought to reach a pretty high figure. We hardly think that a seat in Congress pays for the sacrifice.

BEAUTY: OR THE
Secret of a Fair Face

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.
It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.
It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.
It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.
It makes the plainest face beautiful.
It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.
It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.
The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.
Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store

Burhett is the best teacher of Penmanship in the country, is absolutely without a peer in the practice of his art, and without a rival in his extraordinary facility in imparting it." He is an accomplished and accurate accountant."

HEGE'S IMPROVED CIRCULAR
SAW MILL
Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.
CIRCULAR SAW MILL. LEVER FEED CUTTER

Hege's Improved Circular Saw Mill, is no new and ununtried saw mill, but is one that is well and favorably known in many sections, and wherever it is introduced it is fast superceding all others. It is simple in construction, yet reliable in operation, and is sold for less than any other first class saw mill. Send for descriptive circular
Lever Feed Cutter,
Is something entirely new and novel in the feed cutter line. With this cutter the feed is cut off diagonally, instead of square across, as is the case with all other cutters, at the same time our cutter has a draw cut, acting exactly on the same principle that a knife is used in cutting off a stick, consequently with our Diagonal Feed Cutter we can cut more feed with less labor in a given time than any other cutter costing twice as much.
Price reduced to $8.00. Send for circular. Liberal discount to agents. No goods consigned. Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.
THE SALEM PLOW
Will not Choke. Runs light. Easily regulated.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 17.

For the South Atlantic and Gulf States, stationary followed by falling barometer; south and east winds; warmer and partly cloudy weather.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Hon. Jos. J. Davis spoke at Pittsboro yesterday.

——Prof. Slater will open a dancing school in a few days.

——The choicest Lynn Haven Bay Oysters, on the half-shell, at Tim Lee's to-night.

——The cause of the delay on the railroad below Goldsboro, was the blowing out of a flue in the engine.

——The grocery trade was brisk yesterday. Cotton was in but small demand, and but little business was done in that staple.

——The kindness or Mr. Sherry, another instance of which is to-day given, earns for him the best wishes and respect of the people here.

——Mr. D. T. Johnson, a gentleman who is displaying much enterprise as a grocer on Wilmington street, is receiving daily a large stock of goods.

——Mr. J. B. Harris yesterday killed a goshawk that measured 4½ feet from tip to tip of wings. It was an unusually fine specimen.

——Do not forget that clothing as well as money is sorely needed by the people in the inflicted districts, who shiver these cool nights.

——The last jury case was disposed of yesterday in the Criminal court, and it is probable that this tribunal will adjourn to-day, after a laborious session.

——The train from Goldsboro was an hour and a half late yesterday. It waited for the train on the A. & N. C. Railway, but owing, it is thought, to some accident, the latter came no nearer than 12 miles of Goldsboro.

Mayor's Court.

Justice W. D. Haywood yesterday tried John Henry Mitchell, colored, for an assault upon Frank Lewis. He was fined $1 and costs.

Col. L. L. Polk, State Commissioner of Agriculture, leaves to-day for Northampton county. He will address the farmers of that fine section of the State, at Potecasi. He will afterwards make several speeches in the county. The Colonel takes a sincere pride in his good work of keeping the farmers alive to the best interests of their State. He is untiring in his efforts in this direction.

Official Examination.

Mr. J. A. Hale, Revenue Agent, yesterday completed an investigation of the office of Col. I. J. Young, Collector of this District. The examination was thorough, and he at its conclusion wrote a letter complimenting Col. Young on the good management of the office, whose books and papers were found perfectly in order and correctly balanced. He says the office ranks among the best in the country.

Illness of Dr. Wright.

Dr. Adam E. Wright, of Wilmington, Superintendent of Health, while seated at his desk in his office Monday about noon, was suddenly stricken with paralysis. He was removed to a room adjoining the office, and Drs. Walker and Lane called in, when it was found that his entire right side was more or less affected, and he was unable to articulate with sufficient distinctness to be understood except occasionally a word. He retained his consciousness, however, sufficiently to recognize such of his friends as called to see him, and to understand any remarks made to him.

Dr. Wright returned only a few days since from a visit to Asheville and other points in the Western part of the State, and was apparently in better physical condition than he had been for a long time.

He has numbers of acquaintances here, both among the medical fraternity and others.

The good work of relief goes steadily on all over the State, and every community lends a helping hand. The need of clothing just now is urgent. Mr. Bryan, at the Express office, yesterday received some, but all that can be spared in the way of cast off garments should be given.

The Ætna Life.

Attention is called to the attractive advertisement of this Company, represented by Maj. W. H. Crow, General Agent and Manager for North Carolina and half of Virginia. This is one of the safest Companies in America. Every man ought to insure his life for the benefit of his family. It is a great mistake to neglect it. Its benefits have been seen in many a sorrowing household in late years, where the widow and orphans have been succored.

The Ætna has an eminent reputation as a safe and reliable institution for insurance. Through the able management of Maj. Crow, this Company now enjoys the largest business in this State, and the confidence and esteem of the people. Maj. Crow was the first man to engage in the insurance work in this State after the war, and the wonderful success he has achieved with the Ætna demonstrates that he is without a superior in the country.

Military Gossip.

Ammunition for breech-loading rifles has been shipped to all the companies of the State Guard which will be present at Encampment. Rules for rifle-practice, together with complete score books, have also been distributed. In future great attention will be paid to rifle-practice, as it is desired that the troops may become efficient marksmen.

There are now 27 white infantry companies and 10 colored; two batteries of light artillery, both white. The total of the force, officers and enlisted men, is about 2800.

A plan is on foot to at once effect a reorganization of the Raleigh Rifles. Whether it will succed or not depends upon activity and judgment on the part of its organizers, for nothing so easily loses all vigor as a company not officered by and composed of men of vigor and spirit.

The old, old story, of the reluctance of many employers to let their employees off for drills continues to be told in excuses for non attendance. When will such employers learn to look upon volunteer troops in the true light of usefulness, and consider that an apparent present luxury is a future necessity.

We are indebted to him for a valuable donation last year, which was not awarded as a premium, but at his suggestion distributed to physicians and leading citizens on trial. It has been universally approved.

Jones, President of the Western Railroad, and is now canvassing the tobacco regions of our State.

We make it a point to have an agent always in New York, looking for best goods at lowest prices. *

A warning against the use of unsafe oils was given recently in Wilmington, N. C. A lamp was left burning in a room, while the people of the house were absent. On their return, it was found that the lamp, exploding, had burned the mantel. By a miracle the fire proceeded no further.—Raleigh Daily News.

Prompt Reform of Bodily Evils.

The prompt reform of those bodily evils, enfeebled digestion, incomplete assimilation inactivity of the liver, kidneys and bladder, as well as of the nervous symptoms which these ailments are especially prone to beget, is always accomplished by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine accredited by physicians, pronounced pure by analysis, and eminently wholesome and agreeable. Surely such a restorative is preferable to unpalatable and indigestible mineral drugs and unsanctioned nostrums. The nation at large assuredly thinks so, judging by the unprecedented demand for the article from Maine to the Pacific, a demand now supplemented by immense orders for it received from tropical America, Mexico, the British and Spanish Colonial possessions, and elsewhere. Both at home and abroad it is recognized as a standard remedy and preventive, the decisiveness of its effects recommending it everywhere.

HOME REMEDY.

THE MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY

CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction. While my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood, and probably for other diseases.

FAYETTEVILLE, N, C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON,

Dear Madam, I have been using your Remedy for Scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the Doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine appeared to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this. rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Toeic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Very truly and Respectfully,
JOHN BUIE, Box 141,
Fayetteville, N. C.

For my personal reliability, I refer, by permission to Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, D. D., North Carolina; Geo. A. Foote, M. D., Warren, Co.; Hons. J. J. Davis and C. M. Cooke, Franklin Co.

The above medicine is for sale by Pescud, Lee & Co., Wm. Simpson, and F. H Heartt, Druggists Raleigh, N. C. or it may be ordered direct from me. For further information, enclose stamp for Circulars to

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterated and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit to use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet loads of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to bar out Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article throughout the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and as a credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding as we claim "UNRIVALED."
